Spokane physical therapist suspended after child porn convictions

OLYMPIA -- The Board of Physical Therapy has immediately suspended Spokane Valley physical therapist William Milo Griffin's (PT.00003900) license after he was criminally convicted for possessing child porn.

Charges state that Griffin had explicit videos of adults engaged in sexual activities with children. In June 2015, Griffin pled guilty in the District Court for Latah County Idaho to three felony counts of sexual exploitation of a child.

Griffin can't practice in Washington until the charges are resolved. He has 20 days to respond to the charges and to ask for a hearing.

The documents in this case can be seen online by clicking "Look up a health care provider" on the Department of Health website. Copies can be requested by calling 360-236-4700. That number can also be used to file complaints against health care providers in Washington.

The Department of Health and Board of Physical Therapy protects and promotes public health, safety, and welfare in Washington by regulating the competency and quality of health care providers. The agency establishes, monitors, and enforces qualifications for licensing, consistent standards of practice, continuing competency mechanisms, and discipline. Rules, policies, and procedures promote the delivery of quality health care to people in Washington.
