

Washington State Department of Health
Zoonotic & Vector-borne Disease Workshop

Thursday, September 22, 2016

Central Washington University • Student Union & Recreation Center Ballroom
400 East University Way • Ellensburg, WA 98926

8:30	Welcome Housekeeping • Dr. Ron Wohrle
8:45	Zoonotic Disease Highlights Environmental-Veterinary • Dave Kangiser Human • Hanna Oltean
9:15	Risk of salmonellosis from backyard poultry flocks, Seattle, Washington • Dr. Heather Fowler, University of Washington
9:45	15-Minute Break
10:00	One Health perspective on antibiotic resistance in Tanzania • Dr. Douglas Call, Washington State University, Paul G. Allen School for Global Animal Health
11:00	Detection of white-nose syndrome in a bat found in Washington: What it means for Washington • Dr. Katherine Haman, Washington State Department of Fish and Wildlife
11:30	90-Minute No Host Lunch
1:00	Disease ecology of ticks on the 30 Acre Lake Trail in the Turnbull National Wildlife Refuge • Robert Shadix Jr., Eastern Washington University
1:30	Zika! Highlights: Environmental • Dr. Elizabeth Dykstra Human • Hanna Oltean
2:00	Borrelia burgdorferi complex • Dr. Muhammad Morshed, British Columbia CDC
2:45	15-Minute Break
3:00	Fatal Streptococcus equi subspecies zooepidemicus infection associated with equine exposure, King County, Washington, 2016 • Dr. Vance Kawakami, Epidemic Intelligence Service, CDC
3:30	Salmonella I 4, 5, 12:i:- infections associated with pork, Washington State, 2015 and 2016 • Natalie Linton, CSTE Fellow
4:30	Closing Remarks • Wayne Clifford