

Somatic Education Training Program Application

RCW 18.108.050(6) provides for individuals who have completed a somatic education training program approved by the secretary to be exempt from licensure as a massage practitioner in Washington State.

WAC 246-830-485 somatic education training program exemption states, in part, that the secretary will consider approval for exemption from this chapter any individual who has completed a somatic education program that has a professional organization with a permanent administrative location that oversees the practice of somatic education.

In order to fulfill the requirements as outlined in WAS 246-830-485, an individual seeking exemption from massage licensure must complete and submit this Somatic Education Training Program application to the Department of Health for approval.
