

WICShopper App and Foster Families

Foster families can register multiple WIC Cards with their WICShopper app. When a WIC Card is added to the app, the app offers:

- Up-to-date WIC food benefit balances;
- Notifications when benefits are about to expire;
- Ability to scan food items and know:
 - Is this a WIC allowed item?
 - Can I purchase this with my current WIC food benefit balance?
- Cereal and produce calculators to help keep track of benefits.

Steps
1. Register a card: The app usually asks if you want to register a card. a. Enter the foster child's WIC Card number on the first line. b. 3. See a list of cards in the app:

Once cards are registered, you should see all cards in a list.

- Card numbers will show up in grey font when they are not selected.
- The card number in black font is the current card selected.
- All app screens will use this WIC Card data when showing available benefits, scanning foods to see if they are allowed, etc.
- Choose a different card by selecting the line.

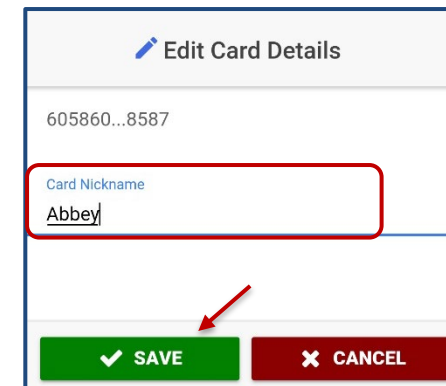

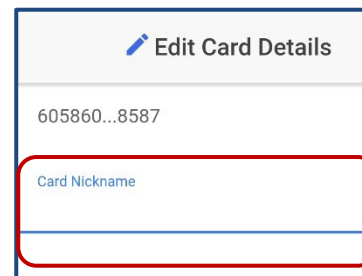

4. Add a Name:

When you have more than one WIC Card, it may be helpful to add a name to each card in the app.

Under Registered WIC Cards:

- Select the pencil next to the card.
- Add a name on the line Card Nickname.
- Select Save.
- In the card list, the number and name will appear.

5. Switching between cards:

Under My Benefits, you will notice a 4-digit card number at the bottom of the screen.

All benefits listed in My Benefits are specific to that WIC Card.

To look at another WIC Card benefits:

- Select the 4-digit card number.
- You will be taken to the Registered WIC Cards list.
- To change card numbers, select another card in the list.
- The app will retrieve benefit details from the WIC account.
- Select arrow at the top, to go back to My Benefits.
- You will see the food benefits for the new card selected.

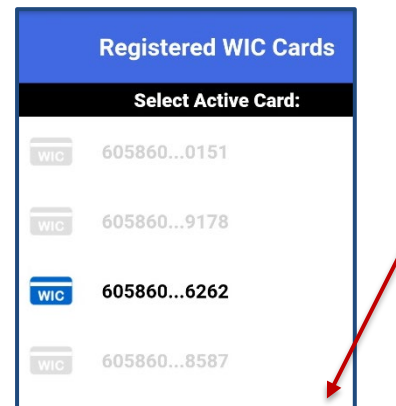

4 digit = last 4 digits of the WIC card currently selected.

Click on the card showing.

You will be taken to the Registered WIC Cards screen.

You will see the full card number of the card you selected in the My Benefits screen.

Select a new card number in the list. The app will retrieve the new card's benefit details from the WIC account.

A message will appear at the bottom of screen.
