(2) A chemical dependency professional must comply with the requirements of chapter 246-12 WAC, Part 7.
WAC 246-811-280  Suicide assessment training standards.

(1) A substance use disorder professional must complete a training in suicide assessment, including screening and referral. The training must be provided by a single provider and must be at least three hours in length, which may be provided in one or more sessions.

    (a) Until July 1, 2017, the training must be approved by the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention; the Suicide Prevention Resource Center; an industry-recognized organization or an institution of higher learning listed in WAC 246-811-200; or an association which approves training programs based on observation and experiment or best available practices.

    (b) Beginning July 1, 2017, the training must be on the department's model list for training programs in suicide assessment, treatment and management. The model list is developed in accordance with rules adopted by the department that establish minimum standards for training programs. The establishment of the model list does not affect the validity of training completed prior to July 1, 2017.
(2) A certified chemical dependency professional substance use disorder professional who is a state or local government employee is exempt from the requirements of this section if he or she receives a total of at least three hours of training in suicide assessment, including screening and referral from his or her employer every six years. For purposes of this subsection, the training may be provided in one three-hour block or may be spread among shorter training sessions at the employer's discretion.

(3) A certified chemical dependency professional substance use disorder professional who is an employee of a community mental health agency licensed under chapter 71.24 RCW or a chemical dependency program certified under chapter 70.96A RCW is exempt from the requirements of this section if he or she receives a total of at least three hours of training in suicide assessment, including screening and referral from his or her employer every six years. For purposes of this subsection, the training may be provided in one three-hour block or may be spread among shorter training sessions at the employer's discretion.

NEW SECTION

WAC 246-811-300  Probationary license.

(1) The department shall issue a probationary license to out-of-state applicants seeking licensure in Washington state for substance use disorder professional according to the conditions and restrictions of the reciprocity program established RCW 18.205.140 and this chapter.

(2) The out-of-state license must be from a state or territory identified on a list published by the department as eligible for reciprocity for the purposes of a probationary license for the particular behavioral health profession.

(3) Initial license. To receive an initial probationary license, the applicant must submit to the department:

(a) A completed application;

(b) Verification of their out-of-state license; and

(c) The fee according to WAC 246-811-990;

(4) Renewals. If necessary, a probationary license may be renewed a single time within one year of the initial license being issued and payment of the fee in WAC 246-811-990. A renewal is valid for one year after the date of renewal. To maintain a probationary licensee, the licensee must be able to demonstrate completion of suicide assessment, treatment, and management according to WAC 246-811-280(1), and AIDS education according to WAC 246-811-075 as a condition for renewal.

(5) Continuing education. With the exception of the requirements of this section, continuing education requirements will apply once a probationary licensee transitions to a full license.

(6) Approved Supervision. If the department determines a probationary licensee must complete supervised hours of experience as a condition for full licensure, the licensee must complete the stated hours under an approved supervisor according to the conditions of this chapter.

(b) Applicants who have held an active license for five consecutive years or more in another state or territory, without a disciplinary record or disqualifying criminal history, are deemed to have met the supervised experience requirements for Washington state licensure.
