We work with others to protect the health of the people of Washington State by ensuring safe and reliable drinking water.

THE “NOT A DECLARED DROUGHT” OF 2018
Office of Drinking Water
Meanwhile...on the West Side

Forks, WA – Groundwater Levels

Well #1  Well #2  Well #3  Well #4  Well #5

- 6/1/2018
- 6/1/2017
- 6/1/2015
Conservation Efforts

- Clallam Bay/Seiku and Island View
- City of Ryderwood
- City of Forks
- City of Woodland
- City of Cheney
- Town of Cathlamet
- City of Kelso
- City of Camas
- Neah Bay
- Two rural systems in Jefferson County
- Moses Lake and Medical Lake (summer watering ordinances)
Going Forward

- Continue to monitor
- Review drought communications strategy
- EPA drought preparedness workshop
- LHJ’s