Coordinated Water System Plans of Washington State

Local governments administer the Coordination Act through permitting processes and Coordinated Water System Plans (CWSPs) under RCW 70.116. In areas where a local government has adopted a CWSP, applicants seeking to develop a new water system located within an existing water system's future service area must first request service from the existing system.

The Washington State Department of Health (DOH) does not warrant the accuracy, reliability or timeliness of any information published in this map and assumes no responsibility for errors in the content of the information provided. Persons or entities that rely on any information obtained from this do so at their own risk.