Employee Expectations

- Staff will participate in fostering a culture that allows all of us to bring our “whole self” to work.

- Staff will be respectful to one another by asking questions for understanding and assuming good intent when working together.

- Staff will embrace learning and dialogue to improve our workplace.

- The agency will support our leaders in addressing issues and building a supportive environment for all staff.

- Leaders will encourage staff to share their perspectives to make things better.

- The agency will engage in practices to recruit and retain diversity.