2. New Business—DISCUSSION/ACTION—Randy Anderson, DPM, Chair
2.1. WSR 19-19-052 – WAC 246-922-230 Prohibited transactions
   The board held a rule adoption hearing to consider public comment and take public testimony on the proposed rule language. There was a suggestion to modify the published proposed rule language as follows:
   (1) A podiatric physician and surgeon is prohibited from selling adjusted or modified adjusting or modifying prefabricated orthotic devices and selling them to customers as custom fabricated or custom made devices.
   MOTION: The Chair entertained a motion to adopt the rules with the suggested modification. The motion was seconded and unanimously approved.
2.2. WSR 19-21-159 – WAC 246-922-675 Patient notification, secure storage, and disposal

The board held a rule adoption hearing to consider public comment and take public testimony on the proposed rule language. The board received a suggestion to modify the published proposed rule language as follows:

(5) As required in RCW 69.50.317 of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, any practitioner who writes the first prescription for an opioid during the course of treatment to any patient must discuss and provide a written copy of the warning language provided by the department under RCW 43.70.765.

The board discussed the suggested edit; however, the board determined not to amend the rules as published with the Office of the Code Reviser.

MOTION: The Chair entertained a motion to adopt the rules as published. The motion was seconded and unanimously approved.

3. Correspondence/Inquiries
3.1. Request for Lists – Medical Education Group Learning Systems/Informed, Inc.

The board reviewed a request for lists of podiatric physician licensees.

MOTION: The Chair entertained a motion to approve Medical Education Group Learning Systems/Informed, Inc. to receive lists of podiatric physician licensees. The motion was seconded and unanimously approved.
