Keep it Separate

Cross contamination is the spread of bacteria from raw meat to other foods.

To avoid cross contamination:

- Separate raw meat below or away from other foods.
- Wash and sanitize equipment after you use it for raw meat.
- Wash your hands after touching raw meat.
- Sanitize with sanitizers used only with raw meat.