• Staff:
• Use this form when proof of income exists but the participant, parent guardian or caretaker didn’t bring it to the clinic.
• Enter the self-reported household income in Cascades Income Details and assess if it meets WIC guidelines.
• Select “Not Provided” for proof of income.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Household Income</th>
<th>Income Type</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

WIC Nutrition Program

The Washington State WIC Nutrition Program is a nutrition program that provides resources for eligible participants who meet certain criteria. The program is funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) and is administered by the Washington State Department of Health (DOH). The program is designed to improve the health and well-being of pregnant women, breastfeeding mothers, infants, and children up to five years old who are at nutritional risk.

- Eligibility Criteria:
  - Household income must be below the federal poverty line.
  - Participants must meet specific nutritional and health criteria.

- Benefits:
  - Healthy foods
  - Nutrition education
  - Health exams
  - Referrals for health care services

- Contact Information:
  - For more information, call (360) 555-1234 or visit the WIC website at www.washwic.org.

- Complaints:
  - If you have a complaint about the WIC program, you can file a complaint with the USDA at http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html or by calling the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form (USDA Office of Civil Rights) at (866) 632-9992.

- Address:
  - Washington State WIC Nutrition Program
  - Washington State Department of Health
  - 1400 Independence Avenue, SW
  - Washington, D.C. 20250

Staff initial all that apply:  _____ Interpreter  _____ Read to client  _____ Written translation  _____ Other